Shihan Anthony Medina

Owner/CEO

Originally from the Bronx, The Medina family moved to Suffolk County when Anthony was 4 years-old. They resided there until he turned 16. Shihan Medina started his martial arts training when he was 5 years-old; the will to succeed was then instilled in him. First, Anthony studies Karate and Judo at the prestigious academy of martial arts Miyama Ryu Ju Jutsu, located in the South Bronx, N.Y. In junior high school, Shihan Medina started wrestling for his local school team. Taking full advantage of his years of judo training, he became an instant standout. By his freshman year of high school, he had achieved multiple tournament wins, and posted an undefeated wrestling season for William Floyd High School in Long Island. In the summer of 1989, Shihan Medina's family moved to Boca Raton where he attended Spanish River High School.

Shihan Medina was a star student athlete, playing on the varsity football and wrestling teams. He proudly represented his high school and region in the Florida State Wrestling. In 1995, Shihan Medina continued his martial arts studies by receiving his black belt in Judo from Shihan Antonio Pereira. Through his study and pursuit of Budo, Anthony made the decision to delve chiefly into the sport of Judo, winning many local and national tournaments.

In 2009, after 30 years of martial arts experience in the study of Japanese Budo, Shihan Medina was awarded the rank of Kaiden (7th degree Black Belt in Miyama Ryu Jutsu) and Yodan (4th degree Black Belt in Judo). The English translation of the word Budo is "the martial way" or "way of the warrior." The Budo way has become a true testament and expression Shihan Medina has chosen to live by. He serves as the Director of International Development for USA MMA.

Martial Arts Experience:

Instructor in Ju Jutsu, Judo and MMA, Miyama Ryu Ju Jutsu, Women's Self-defense, Police Tactics; Judo and Karate. Since 1995 Shihan Medina has been a Judo Rank Examiner and Karate instructor teaching children and adults from the rank of White to Black Belt.

KEVIN MEDINA

"In the amateur world of MMA, bridging the gap between nations is the first step towards Olympic recognition."

MEDINA

Kevin Medina

Owner/CDO

Kevin began his martial arts training at the young age of 6. When Kevin was 18, he took gold in the United States National Championship in judo before he graduated from Spanish River High School. His continued growing passion for the arts was rewarded with a full scholarship to the prestigiously world famous college Yong-In University in Seoul, South Korea.

Graduating with honors, Kevin was bestowed respectable ranks in both Judo and Tae Kwon Do. Throughout his career. He competed and placed first in various reputable local, national and international tournaments, which allowed him to train with the U.S. team for their participation at the 2000 Olympic games in Sydney, Australia in 2003. And after acquiring enough points to compete in the 2004 Olympics, Kevin suffered a traumatic injury to his ACL, which resulted in several strenuous operations.

Kevin relocated to Borås, Sweden, and opened his academy Miyama Ryu Combat Ju Jutsu where he has served the general public since 2005 as a full time instructor. In recent years, Kevin has developed close relationships with major worldwide martial arts organizations such as the USA MMAF, IMMAF, and the SMMAF to bring international amateur MMA to Olympic recognition.

Martial Arts Experience:

Kevin has trained or holds certifications in the disciplines of Western Boxing, Kickboxing, Krav Maga, Defendo, Kali, BJJ, Aikido, Judo, Taekwondo, Ju Jutsu and Shotokan Karate.
